ANSWERED ON:26.04.2000
PUBLICATION OF INACCURATE INDIAN MAPS
JAGDAMBI PRASAD YADAV

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the foreign institutions involved in publishing maps showing part of our country as a part of other countries and the time since when such practices are going on;

(b) the action taken by our country in this regard so far and the results thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

(SHRI AJIT KUMAR PANJA)

(a) A list of foreign institutions involved in publishing wrong maps of India as per available records is placed below. Such practices have been going on since Independence and the start of our border disputes with certain neighbouring countries.

(b) Once such cases are brought to our notice, the matter is immediately taken up with the publishers through our Missions abroad.
